

Student Homeownership Promotion Program

UAMS is happy to present the Student Homeownership Promotion Program. The program will include targeted financial educational classes, free tax preparation with savings promotion, and housing/credit counseling through our partner lending institution, Southern Bancorp Community Partners (SBCP).

The eligibility guidelines for the program are:

- ❖ UAMS Full-time student
- ❖ Employee/Student total income of $100,000 or less
- ❖ Current residence in Central Arkansas

Students who participate will also be eligible for the for the eHome America Homebuyer Education course at a discounted rate. If you meet the eligibility guidelines, you may contact UAMSCommunityInitiatives@uams.edu for additional program information or counselors@southernpartners.org to determine your point of entry to the program.

This initiative is one of the many projects that aligns with the UAMS Vision 2029 plan to increase student recruitment and retention. It is focused on providing UAMS students who want to own a home the educational tools and support needed to make their dream a reality.
