To register someone for training- first select training schedule and see if they are already registered for it.

To see what someone has taken and completed for instructor led classes and online training select training transcript.

When you select training analysis, training schedule or training transcript- this will open EMULATION- which means you will be logged in as that user. More information on that below.

When you enter emulation:

This yellow eyeball indicates that you are in emulation mode.

The magnifying glass is where you will search for classes and register as the user
